Public Hearing On Fate Of Broadmoor Bus Line To Be Held September 29th

The fate of the Broadmoor bus line No. 28 may definitely be decided today, September 29, at a public hearing of San Francisco supervisors.

Held to consider the future of outer Mission district transportation, the meeting will be at 4 p.m. in city hall.

One apparent champion for the Broadmoor community is Supervisor Martin Lewis, who this week blamed the line's loss of money to Municipal Railway "mismanagement."

The SFMR plans to discontinue the Broadmoor service, claiming they are losing money operating the line.

Council To Start Edgemar Division Land Improvements

Always keeping an eye on the growth of Daly City, the council Monday evening is expected to pass a resolution starting improvements in the Edgemar subdivision.

This is an adjourned meeting, as the meeting last Monday was cut short for the Tuesday election.

The subdivision is in the northeastern part of the Crocker tract between Whittier and Frankfort streets. It is the Concordia Land Co. area.

Councilmen are expected to pass the resolution which will start improvements (water, sewers, etc.) in the tract. Eventually some 200 new homes are expected to be built on this land.

A discussion will also be heard on proceedings to shift the $396,000 bond issue into high gear. The council will consider various means of starting work soon on the community center and parks.

A resolution also will probably pass to canvass votes in the Tuesday election and approve the election results.

Contracts for the Alp street improvements and the water pipe installation will also be awarded. Bidders on these two jobs are listed elsewhere in the "Record."

There also will be two abatement hearings.

Community Chest Drive Begins Here Saturday, October 1

October is Community Chest month in Daly City, Paul Green, chairman, said today.

The local quota is $2,500. Green appealed to local residents and business men and women to "give generously . . . and give where you work and where you live."

Throughout San Mateo county, hundreds of volunteers will contribute generously of their time and efforts to help the Chest's eight Red Feather agencies obtain a total of $189,981, the minimum amount needed to operate them during the next year.

More than 200,000 residents and 4,100 business firms will be contacted.

All of the Chest's Red Feather services are county-wide and are available to persons of all faiths races, national heritages and economic groups.

Children and youngsters will receive approximately 80 per cent of the benefits provided by such services. Direct expenditures or youth programs are made by the Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, YMCA and Children's Health Home.

Indirect benefits are provided through foster home and family assistance work by the Family Service Agency and the Catholic Social Service. The Blood Bank, another vital Chest agency, supplies emergency needs for all ages. The Council of Social Agencies aids in coordinating social and welfare groups in the most efficient manner.

Those who wish to offer their services as "block" solicitors are asked to call Mrs. Ethel R. Harris 239 Peoria street, at DElaware 3-5549. These volunteer workers will be asked to solicit donations for the Chest from the neighbors in their block.

Four Men To Appear In Police Court Friday On Drunkenness Charges

Companionable "John Barleycorn" led four men to Daly City's jail over the week end.

Charged with drunkenness were Bob Nelson, 291 Hillcrest; Robert Nelson, Redwood City; Joe Gretch, 114 Scocia street, San Francisco, and Joseph Perez, 748 Madrid street, San Francisco.

All of the men were released on bail from $5 to $10 and ordered to appear in police court Friday, September 30, to answer the carges.

School Board Now Considering Bids To Raze Old School

Demolition of the old Woodrow Wilson school was one step closer today following opening of bids for the job at a Jefferson elementary school board meeting September 22.

The bids were received and taken under advisement until the state authorities have the opportunity to check them.

Those submitting bids included: J. D. Dolan, $8,375; Cleveland Wrecking Co., $6,874; Bernal Construction Co., $4,200; Joseph Ballinger Co., $6,870; Symon Brothers, $4,939.

Looking to the positive side of school construction, Mario Ciampi was signed as architect for the proposed new Weslake school. Ciampi submitted a plot plan for the building and preliminary drawings.

James Snell, superintendent of the school district, said the fate of the new building would rest for the most part on how the voters cast their ballots at the November 8 election. At that time they will be asked to approve a state $250,000,000 bond issue, some of which would be used to finance the Westlake school.

Ciampi also reported that construction work at the Woodrow Wilson addition, with the exception of the floor tiles, should be completed by October 1.

Other business before the board was:

(1) Deeds to the additional 4 inches of property adjoining the new Woodrow primary school were accepted.

(2) Mrs. Vicain and Mrs. Intaschi were approved as teachers in the district.

(3) The school milk supply will be handled on the same basis for the remainder of the school year.

(4) Mrs. Inez Mesquite's monthly salary as janitor was raised in keeping with the extra time made necessary by the addition of the shop and home economics rooms. The prorated amount would be $25 per month to $164.

(5) Snell was instructed to look for a janitor for the administration building and who would also serve as yard man at Woodrow Wilson, Pershing and Crocker schools.

(6) A request from the Broadmoor Property Association requesting the prohibition of horseback riding across the grounds was referred to the district attorney's office.

(7) A letter from Howard Richardson, Broadmoor, for a share of the school insurance was placed on file until other policies come due.

(8) Anyone who knows where bus storage can be found was asked to contact the school district. Meanwhile Snell was instructed to get a cost estimate of temporary construction.

Lawyers Argue "Last" Case In Police Court

Following one of the longest legal "debates" in many weeks, Merlyn Last, New San Francisco Auto Court, Daly City, was found guilty of drunkenness in police court Friday.

But before Judge W. J. Sweeney could pronounce sentence, one of

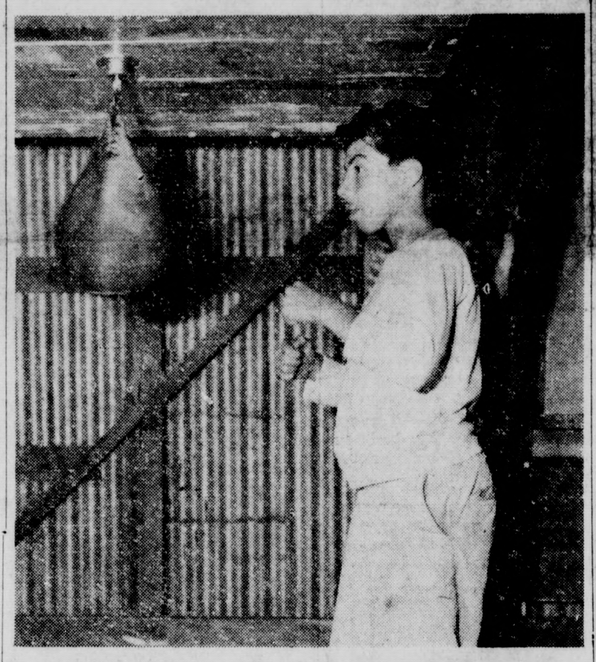
DALY CITY BOYS CLUB IN ACTION



—Photos by Myra's Studio

Left, punching the old bag is Joe Galante, whose name isn't too far removed from another famous and equally talented boxer. This punching bag receives rough treatment each night from some of the 50 to 60 boys who go up to the clubhouse to work off excess energy.

These two pictures illustrate the need for more equipment at the Daly City Boys' clubhouse. They would be glad to except either cash donations or athletic equipment.

Daly City Boys Club Trains Members In The Ways Of Good Citizenship

Gathered in a Daly City basement two years ago were 32 boys bravely attempting to have a good time playing between a furnace and a coal bin.

That was the beginning of the now famous Daly City Boys club that today claims 400 members and can boast of its own clubhouse.

Much of the credit for the change, the formation of the club, can go to Frank Lombardi. It was he who discovered the boys meeting in the basement.

"I thought they had something. It looked like a good thing to keep the kids off the street and out of jail," Lombardi recalls.

A few days later the Daly City businessman invested $300 in his faith and the club. Until then the boys had exactly 42 cents in their treasury.

With the $300 the lads, ranging in age from six to 21, purchased baseballs, basketballs, a ping-pong table and other equipment.

Still they had no place to meet. It was then that Lombardi turned over part of a building to the club.

The present meeting place for the organization is at No. 2 Hillside boulevard, directly across the street from Lombardi's station at 6498 Mission.

As the club grew, other business men and parents in the community became interested. Today, in addition to Lombardi, Curly Armando and Everett Gray are backing the club. There are also numerous parents paying $12 a year to keep the club going.

(Nevertheless, there is still a need of money to buy additional equipment. If you are a parent, or business man, the boys would be glad to except a donation.)

At the present time the organization operates the club house only five nights a week from 7 to 10 o'clock. Games and other activities are under the direction of the University of San Francisco freshman football coach, Joe Daugherty.

Much of the equipment has been built by Daugherty over the past

DC Man In Court Today Because He Resents Billboard Blocking

Billboard haters will undoubtedly sympathize with Philip F. Tessier, 443 Citrus avenue.

Police allegedly found Tessier Saturday night attempting to tear down one of the signs (small variety) at an unmentioned point in this fair community.

Officers forthwith took Tessier to jail, charged him with drunkenness, released him on $10 bail, and ordered him to appear in police court Friday, September 30.

When asked why he attacked the billboard, Tessier allegedly replied, "I was walking along, and the darn thing got in my way."

Ciampi Proposes New Site for Garden Village School

Soon to be submitted to the county planning commission is a site for the proposed new Garden Village school upper grade building.

Originally it was proposed to purchase part of the Lake Merced Golf Club land. But this was found unfeasible because of prohibitive cost.

The proposed site utilization plan for the upper grades was submitted to the Jefferson Elementary school district by architect Mario Ciampi.

James Snell, district superintendent, said he did not wish to disclose the proposed new site until the county planning commission had a chance to study same.

C. J. Pettigrew Home From Vets Oakland Hospital

Promising today that he'll soon be exploring car engines in his Daly City Garage, 49 Hillcrest, is owner C. J. Pettigrew.

Pettigrew returned from a two-month stay in the Oakland Veterans Administration hospital Wednesday. He went to the hospital July 21, suffering from a stroke.

"I feel fine, and should be back to work in a few days," Pettigrew noted.

Giving his dad a helping hand will be son Allen, who has kept the garage open while his father was in the hospital.

Three Lions Clubs Hold Barbecue This Sunday

Take New York steaks, corn on the cob, beans, garlic bread, and you will have the principal ingredients of the Daly City-Colma-Brisbane Lions Club barbecue this Sunday.

Activities will get underway at 1 p.m. October 2 at Oak Cove Park, San Mateo. The public is welcome to attend, and tickets may be purchased from any member of the three Lions clubs. But early reservations are advised as accommodations are limited to 100 persons.

In addition to the big feed there will be an attractive entertainment program, including music, dancing, games, contests, and plenty of prizes.

Elton McGraw will be in charge of the chef's end of the joint barbecue. Ira Neville and Gil O'Shaughnessy have planned the afternoon of entertainment.

JOHNNY DELL PAINTS: OR THE CASE OF 'MITES WHO LOST A HOME

Baffled termites today are looking desperately for their old home in the Universal Press building, 6347 Mission street.

But the little critters, and it is rumored even Manager Johnny Dell, have unwittingly bypassed the structure since paint was sprayed on its weary, sagging slats this week.

The paint job is a true landmark in Daly City history. Dell's brother, Bill, asserts the print shop has gone without "make-up" for the past 25 years. He believes this is almost a record for shunning the call of clean up week.

Explaining his decision to apply the brown protective paint, Dell said:

"First the paint salesmen used to bother me. But they gave up. Then came the painters' union. They threw in the towel. Next people around town tried to shame me into painting. I'm not easily embarrassed.

"Finally, thought I had to give in," Dell moaned, "Termites got so bad they threatened to walk off with my press and type. Only way I could get rid of them was to paint."

Maybe it's true, maybe it isn't, but brother Bill informs us that Dell is now plagued with another nuisance . . . sightseers who have come to see the wonder of Daly City, a paint job on the Universal press building.

Edgewood Terrace Group Helps Out

Much of the credit for passage of the $396,000 bond issue Tuesday can go to such civic organizations as the Edgewood Terrace Civic Association.

It was this group that went from door to door in the Edgewood district before the election asking everyone to vote. Also the organization furnished cars during election day to carry voters to the polls.

Individual members who did an outstanding job were Mrs. Jane Keith, Mrs. Theodore Fleming, Mrs. Elsie Rudometkin, Mrs. H. S. Garrison, Mrs. Madeline Bates and Mrs. Betty Reynolds. James Hind also was on hand.

Two cars to carry voters to the polls were donated that day by Frank Lombardi, 6498 Mission.

The Edgewood Terrace group will hold its next meeting October 25, 8:15 p.m., city hall.

DC Legion Post Dance, October 28

An annual costume dance and potluck dinner is planned October 28 by the Daly City American Legion Post No. 410.

The dance and dinner will be held at the Legion Hall, 474 San Diego avenue. Time will be announced later.

All legionnaires and their friends are invited to attend. The admission is free, and the only requirement for dinner being that persons bring enough food to feed their party.

Meanwhile, everyone, young and old, is invited to the monthly Legion square dances. Square dancing is held the last Saturday of each month, at 8:30 p. m., in the Legion Hall. Emil Pahlka

MAJORITY OF VOTERS BALLOT "YES" ON BOTH PROPOSITIONS 1 & 2

Rallying behind a $396,000 improvement program, Daly City voters went to the polls Tuesday to vote YES on Propositions 1 and 2, thereby insuring a War Memorial Community Center and a complete park and playground program.

Approximately 2,500 voters cast their ballots. Total resulting votes were: Proposition 1 (War Memorial Community Center), Yes, 1,744; No, 746. Proposition 2 (park and playground program), Yes, 1,837; No, 648.

More than 70 per cent of the people voting were in favor of the improvements, which were backed by a large citizen's committee and a host of civic and fraternal organizations throughout the city.

Both measures won majorities in every one of the city's 13 consolidated precincts.

Initiated months ago, the program was recommended by the Recreation Committee and put to a vote through vigorous action of Mayor Paul Green and Councilmen A. J. Gaggero, Fred Bertetta and Ed Mooney.

This group of city officials was busy a few hours after the election mapping preliminary steps for acquisition of sites and plans for the new building at Alp and Mission streets.

Progress reports on the Community Center, construction of three new parks and development of two other parks, will be reported from time to time in the "Record."

The "Yes on Both" Committee, who endorsed both proposals and actively supported public approval of the measures, extended their thanks today to the people of Daly City. At the same time the committee congratulated the people on

Burglar Swipes deLeon Clarinet

Coming into deLeon's Music Store, 6129 Mission street, between 5 and 7 p.m. Wednesday, an unidentified burglar left on "wings of song" with a black wooden clarinet.

The thief evidently entered the store while Joseph deLeon was busy with a customer. Going directly to a case containing the clarinet, broken down into six pieces, the thug scooped up the pieces and walked out.

OLPH CARNIVAL WILL APPEAL TO CHILDREN

Circuses and carnivals always spell special fun for the children, and the "Circus Carnival" at Our Lady of Perpetual Help Church will be no exception.

The carnival will be held October 21 to 23 and there will be many attractions for the youngsters.

Featured will be a fishpond, dart game, baseball throw, and many other games. They will be supervised by Louis Thiebaut and members of the Holy Name Society.

The final shaping up of plans for the carnival got under way in the school auditorium. There will be regular meetings to be attended by the various chairmen and parishioners until the time of the carnival.

All proceeds of the carnival are used for the maintenance of the parish school and benefit of the school children.

D. C. Man Faces Bookie Charge, After State Raid

Charged with operating a bookie joint at 12 Knowles avenue, Roy Garaventa, 41, 151 Hillcrest drive, will be arraigned in police court Friday, September 30.

The Daly City bartender was arrested in a surprise raid last Thursday led by Attorney General Fred N. Howser's chief inspector, George W. Griffin, and Daly City Police Chief W. W. Sunderland.

This was Howser's first cut at "vice" in San Mateo county.

When the officers broke into the bookie joint, located but two blocks from city hall in a former beauty parlor, they found seven customers and $3,461 in cash. Telephones, rundown sheets and scratch sheets were also found.

Garaventa was arrested, and later released on $250 bail. None of the seven customers were taken into custody.

Chief Sunderland said the bookie joint had been operating for only two days. He refused to make any other comment.

A form letter, sent to all San Mateo police chiefs and sheriff's offices earlier in the week, warned of such raids.

Griffin gave no indication whether or not there would be other similar raids by the state in this county.

Narcotics Thief Gets Dope; $135 From Lee's Drug

An unidentified dope ring burglar broke into Lee's Pharmacy, 6398 Mission, last night, getting away with a large quantity of narcotics, $125 in cash, and a $10 check.

Police Chief W. W. Sunderland reported this appears to be a continuation of recent narcotic burglaries in the San Francisco area.

State narcotic agents said the burglary also closely resembled others throughout the northern part of California over the past few months, Chief Sunderland reported.

Climbing over a back fence, the thief went into the alley behind

ONE CAUSE OF WEAKNESS

To say that all of Britain's ills are due to the socialism practiced over there is nothing short of distortion of fact. Regardless of what political or economic system were employed, the British, after sacrificing their foreign investments and suffering great physical destruction in order to survive in the recent war, would have been in for a rough postwar period.

But, it is equally untrue to say that socialism has nothing to do with the present economic weakness in Britain. Many observers who view the situation objectively are convinced that it has.

A recent article in the London Economist throws light on one phase of the problem. Says the Economist: "The nation's health, according to official reports, is better than it has ever been: yet at the Royal Ordnance Factories absence because of sickness has risen phenomenally in the last 12 months, and in some cases is four to five times higher." The magazine goes on to point out that just 12 months ago a sick-pay plan was adopted which enables "sick" workers to collect their full pay for at least three months.

The result has been — and this has been acknowledged officially — that many people are consciously or unconsciously exaggerating "symptoms such as headache or cough" and are laying off. In other words, why work if you can get paid for not working?

The tragic part of it all is however, that right now Britain needs the services of every worker. Production and more production is the only salvation for Britain and the workers too. But human nature being what it is, what else can be expected under the circumstances?

PUBLIC SAFETY

The tragic death of Bill Odom in the Cleveland air races in a crash which also brought death to a mother and child, points up the need for greater protection to the public in these speed tests. For a long time residents of the area where the crash occurred have protested that they were being subjected to great danger. But nothing was done about it.

Speed races may serve to advance aviation but that advance should not come at the needless sacrifice of life. If flyers choose to take the risks involved in air racing, that's up to them, but these risks should not be imposed upon citizens in their homes. It is not likely that the annual air race classic will be abandoned, but it should be held in an area less thickly populated. Extending the run out over the lakes might be one means of providing greater public safety.

HOODLUMISM

Patriotism is a fine thing — when it isn't used as an excuse for hoodlumism. But on too many occasions the rowdy element waves the flag with one hand and throws rocks with the other. The riots which occurred in connection with Paul Robeson's concerts in New York illustrate the point. Most Americans have no sympathy whatever with the philosophy espoused by Robseon. But he still has the right to appear in public concerts, and others have the right to assemble to hear him sing.

Those who would interfere with such gatherings by the use of force apparently are too dumb to realize that they are doing more to help the Communist cause by their actions than to hinder it. Abuse of any group tends to win sympathy for that group. What's more, every time the effort is made to deny some one his constitutional rights, the rights of all are jeopardized in a degree. Intelligent alertness, not strong armed stupidity, is needed to combat the Communist menace.

NEW VOLUME

It is interesting to note that the Moscow Academy of Sciences has appointed a board of editors to compile a 22-volume encyclopedia listing the inventions of Russians. Since this compilation will include virtually every invention ever made — the Russians made them all, you know — we wonder how they can all be recorded in a mere 22 volumes.

Another news item from the Russian Capital explains that the reason the world did not hear about all the Russian inventions at the time they were made was that the Tzars suppressed the news to please the Western capitalists. Well, it was a mean trick on all those Russian inventors, but fortunately, everything they thought of was also thought of by someone outside of Russia just shortly afterwards. Just a coincidence, you understand.

AIR JUNKETS

The days of unrestricted joy rides in military planes may be over — for a while. Recent publicity given to the cost of airlifting public officials around the country or around the world has made taxpayers conscious of what an expense it really is. For instance, the Air Force estimated that it would cost $25,000 to haul a group of junketing senators by air from Cairo to Tokyo. With planes available to virtually all government bigwigs for official — and not-so-official — business, it can readily be seen that the expense of such air travel runs into the millions annually.

It is argued that since time is money it is better to tote the top men around in order to save both time and money. That argument is all right when they're traveling on government business. But on pleasure jaunts let them pay their own way. If this is done, Joe Citizen will have more money for some pleasure jaunting of his own.

RIO VISTA BASS DERBY—Little Miss Barbara Buchanan displays a giant striper caught in the Sacramento River at Rio Vista. She hopes to catch monsters like this during the Rio Vista Bass Derby and Water Carnival to be staged Sept. 24-25. A community event, the affair will be featured by prize fishing, water carnival, swimming and diving exhibitions, street parades, huge barbecue, dedication of Rio Vista's new Municipal Swimming Pool and general festivity. Thousands are expected to attend and participate in the two-day celebration.

Narcotics Theft

the drug store, and pried open the back door with a one-inch bar. Charles Vonini, 6487 Mission, who lives next door, heard the noise in the alley but told police this morning that "he didn't give it much thought."

Once inside the drug store, the dope ring member headed straight for the narcotics cabinet, and in so doing pulled the plug out of an electric clock. The clock stopped at 12:10 a.m. Police do not know whether this was done on purpose, or was an accident.

Rifling the cabinet, the thief got varying quantities of opium, cocaine, and morphine. He also took a package of six injection needles.

Then turning to the cash register, he took $125 in cash and a $10 check.

The burglar left through the alley door.

Chief Sunderland said the case would be turned over to state narcotic agents for further investigation.

This makes the sixth successful burglary in Daly City over the past 30 days, and one unsuccessful try to break into Lucca's Market.

New Pastor For Nazarene Church

Members and friends of the Grace Church of the Nazarene, 101 Vista Grande avenue, welcomed their new pastor, The Rev. John A. Nicholson, last Sunday, September 25.

He was called to fill the vacancy caused by the illness of The Rev. D. C. McKisson, former pastor of the Daly City church.

Rev. Nicholson and family have come to Daly City from Monterey where he was pastor of the Monterey Nazarene Church for the past three years.

At the 11 a.m. service on Sunday, October 2, Rev. Nicholson will preach on "The Holiness of God." In the evening service which will begin at 7:45 p.m. his subject will be "God Came Back." Special music and songs will be rendered at each service.

The public is cordially invited to attend and meet the new pastor and his family.

The peach was celebrated in Chinese literature 20 centuries before it was cultivated in Europe.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to take this public means of expressing our sincerest thanks and appreciation for the numerous acts of kind and understanding sympathy extended us during the recent bereavement occasioned by the death of our beloved wife and mother. We especially wish to thank the Daly City Police Department and Daly City Fire Department and those who sent the many beautiful floral offerings.

D. C. Beauties Lead IOF Drum Corps Parade

When two beautiful majorettes strut before a band there's bound to be plenty of wholehearted applause.

Such was the case last Sunday when Misses Bettie Duffy* and Lorraine Remmer, Daly City beauties, twirled their batons before the International Order of Foresters Drum Corps. The occasion for the march was the San Anselmo Fair.

Former dancing instructor in Daly City, Rosalyn Adams is the drum major for the group. It was she who received a first prize award in the "Moose" parade in San Francisco, August 14.

Those who wish to see these three lovelies in action may do so October 9 and 16 in San Francisco and South San Francisco respectively during the Columbus Day Celebration.

Lawyers Argue

Last's attorneys, James Himmel, filed notice of appeal of the case to the county superior court.

Arguing the fine points of law over Last's guilt or innocense Friday were attorneys Himmel, Tom Bocci, for the defense, and Frank Blum for the city, plaintiff in the case.

Last is charged by the city with being drunk in a public place the evening of August 1. Chief point of contention seemed to be whether or not the ground surrounding a trailer is a public place. According to the city and Judge Sweeney, this is the case.

The defense also argued that the law had no right to arrest Last without a warrant. Judge Sweeney seemed to believe that other aggravated circumstances invalidated this claim.

The aforesaid arguments, in addition to many others, resulted in police court staying in session until close to 4 o'clock. Usually it adjourns around 3 o'clock.

This week Judge Sweeney will examine Himmel's appeal, and the case will probably go to the superior court.

Women Of Grace Presbyterian Church Circle No. 3 Invite Public To Feed And Smorgasbord Friday, October 14

Fond of eating? Then why not come to the Grace Presbyterian church smorgasbord October 14.

The big feast will be held at the church, Hanover and Evergreen, from 5:30 p.m. until 8 p.m. This should give even the heaviest eater an opportunity to fill his or her bread basket.

Money from the feast will be used by the Grace Presbyterian Church Circle No. 3, sponsors of the dinner, to carry on future activities.

Thus, by going to the smorgasbord, the eater will not only fill himself, but also help to fill the coffers of the church group.

Mrs. Ora Miller, chairman, asserted this is going to be one of the best smorgasbords ever served up in the Daly City area.

Tickets and further information may be obtained by calling Mrs. Ethel Hodge, 153 Hillside boulevard, at JUniper 6-1897.

In a world of ever-increasing doubt and trouble there are a number of books pointing to some personal or general solution.

The solutions are as numerous as authors, and for the most part appear worth little more than the paper they're printed on. Fortunately, there have been some exceptions to the rule, and occasionally publishers offer a book of true worth and merit.

Such a book is "Peace of Soul" by Monsignor Fulton J. Sheen, now available at the Daly City library. In his work Sheen does not offer some simple over-all panacea to the world's aches and pains. Instead he asks the reader to examine himself; to find those overt and conscious signs which indicate "salvation" through religion.

Lashing out at the modern trend toward rationalized "evil," Sheen asks the reader to turn from the world of the subconscious and psychoanalyst to God. It is these ills which God will forgive if man has the honesty to recognize them.

There are a number of psychologists and scientific men, although believing in God, who may differ with this conclusion. Nevertheless, regardless of religious belief, Monsignor Sheen has successfully reiterated a premise of value to everyone . . . principally the doctrine of self reliance.

All too often, a person tends to blame his faults and those of the world on pre-determined heredity and environment. He assumes the attitude of "what's the use" and rapidly drags himself, and others down into the doldrums of self pity and cynicism.

Monsignor Sheen calls for self-discipline, and refutes the "false gods of rationalized self indulgence and misguided social reforms." Defining Freudism as a revolution against the restraining influences of society, the author calls for a return to spiritual discipline and divine authority.

"Peace of Soul" is a book that will fill a great human need, whether the reader be Catholic or Protestant. It is indeed a panacea to the faults of the world, but more than that, it is a call to return to the philosophy of God.

Other new books at the Daly City Library include:

The Emydian Institute No. 154 held its annual occasion, "The Revelation of Secret Pals Night," Tuesday night.

Lakins Pleads Guilty To Child Cruelty, Gets Six Months In County Jail

Robert E. Lakins, 32-year-old garbage collector, is now serving six months in jail for beating his 6-year-old son with a rose stalk.

The Colma man pleaded guilty to child cruelty before Justice John Fahey, and he was sentenced Monday to six months in the San Mateo county jail.

He beat his son Dennis after the lad accidentally set fire to the courtains in the Colma family home. The lad suffered severe cuts across his back from the rose stalk thrashing.

NEWS FROM THE SCHOOLS

CROCKER

Crocker student body held its election of officers this past week.

The electoral class of the school, as provided for in the school constitution, elected the following officers: president, Virginia Chan; vice-president, Ellis Pizzi; secretary, Elaine Martinez; treasurer, Alfred Perry; sergeants-at-arms, Lois Rasmussen and Martin Verece; school representatives, Patsy Coffee and Bruce Selmi; class representatives, Jerry Giomi and Neil Lundy; school pianists, Carrol Bate and Heather Bridges.

The classrooms also elected their representatives who are members of the student council and meet with the executive board of school officers.

The various room representatives are: Room 6, Sandra Capetanich and George Spoulas; Room 5, Lois Sims and John McNichols; Room 4, Patsy Phillips and Frank Neuman; Room 3, Pat Lang and Robert Dixon; Room 2, Angelo Casserino and Doris Meyers; Room 1, Jerry Giomi and Neil Lundy.

A student council meeting has already been held wherein an amendment was added to the school constitution, which states that "all talking and playing is to stop when the bell rings after an intermission, and that students are to walk in the building and enter their classrooms orderly and quietly." This rule has further been enforced by Sergeant-at-Arms Martin Verece, who has assumed the responsibility of seeing that this newly-adopted amendment is carried out.

The student council has also further adopted bus regulations, which are also being enforced by the executive student officers and council members. This means of teaching "community responsibility" will better fit these interested young citizens to assume positions of leadership in their own progressive community in just a few more years.

Jeff Elem. School District Enters Float In Parade

Wending its way through the Burlingame - San Mateo area Saturday in the county-sponsored centennial parade will be a Jefferson elementary school district float.

This year's float, its sponsors hope, will be the smallest in the parade. It will consist of a Crosley car, topped by a gold block, which in turn will have a gold pan in its center.

In the pan will be two youngsters, representing gold, and "shaking" the pan will be another child dressed in the traditional '49er garb.

Whole purpose of the float is to stress that the real "gold" of this area is in the children and their education.

The march will start at 4 p.m. from Burlingame avenue and California drive and proceed through the Burlingame business district then back to California drive and south to the San Mateo downtown area, terminating at San Mateo city park.

A breath-taking salute by a squadron of jet planes from Hamilton Field will herald the start of the mighty three-mile-long column. The planes are scheduled to dip low over the marshalling grounds in Burlingame as a signal for the parade to get underway.

Only One Weekend Accident Reported

A pleasant change was reported this week in the Daly City police traffic division . . . only one minor accident over the week end.

Involved in the accident at the intersection of Castle street and 1st avenue were Peter W. Maffei, 27, 643 Park street, South San Francisco; Fred R. Alviso, 27, Rt. 1, Box 45, Colma.

According to police the two cars side-swiped at the intersection at 7 p.m. Friday, September 23. Maffei's car sustained most of the damage, suffering bent fenders. Alviso's automobile got off with minor damage. Police did not indicate the exact extent of damage to either of the cars.

Students must have the BEST LIGHTING in your home!

Guard against eyestrain in your home with better lighting. Steady eye use for studying and reading can be the principal cause of hot, inflamed eyes—the warning symptom of eyestrain. For the study desks and reading zones in your home make sure that the lighting is bright enough for easy seeing and is free from glare and immediate shadow. Do as thousands of families are doing now—conduct a fall lighting check-up in your home. Fill empty sockets with right-size bulbs, replace old, blackened bulbs and make sure you have a supply of spare lamps of proper wattage.

several months. One of the finest jobs is a shuffle board. This is made of scrap lumber, and masonite. Other equipment consists of a basketball court (junior size), two ping-pong tables, and a punching bag.

Outside of this, there is little, except Daugherty's imaginative games, to keep the boys busy.

"If we had the room and the necessary things to entertain the boys, we could double the membership of the club," Daugherty explained.

Probably the top feature of the club is the Friday movie. But even this may have to go, as there is not enough money to pay for it each week.

The movies are held each Friday night and feature cartoons, westerns, and other things that interest any boy. Price of admission is only 10 cents.

Any boy between six and 21 can attend the shows. In fact, this is the age group that may join the club.

A small membership fee of 50 cents a year for boys between 6 and 13 years, and $1.50 a year for older boys is charged. There is no religious, race, or any other bar to membership.

"This is a small charge to keep these boys off the streets," Daugherty said.

In an effort to raise more money for the lads a "Harvest Dance" is to be held November 5 at Colombo Hall, Colma.

How about buying a ticket? Even if you don't go to the dance, your money will help some boy to a better way of life. This is the least any citizen can do to help not only his children, but the children of his community.

Tickets may be purchased from Lombardi, or at the Boys Club, or from many Daly City businessmen.

Merchants Pay $900 For Berkeley Xmas Decorations

Don't be surprised if forthcoming Christmas street decorations in Daly City look familiar. They will be from Berkeley.

At a special meeting of the Daly City Merchants Association Friday, it was decided to purchase last year's Berkeley decorations at a cost of $900. An additional $1,500 is expected to be necessary to have the Santa Clauses and angels put up and taken down.

This will be the first time in Daly City's history that the streets will be lighted and dressed up for Christmas. The decorations, plus $2,500 worth of lighting furnished by the city, will run from the San Francisco county line, down Mission to San Pedro road, Frank Lombardi, association president, said.

The majority of the decorations consist of the familiar angels, Santa Clauses, Christmas trees and other such items.

The Berkeley purchase was made as the Merchants got the equipment for much less than it would have cost new. Lombardi assured residents that the decorations were as good as new.

Merchants will be asked to subscribe money to buy the decorations.

It is expected the city will be ready for Christmas lighting a few weeks before the big day, and the bright red and orange lights and other holiday matter all will stay up until after New Years.

Council Holds Short Meeting Monday Night

Their minds on the Tuesday election, city officials cut short the regular council meeting Monday night and adjourned it until October 3.

All of the bids were taken under advisement and councilmen indicated some action on them would be taken at the next meeting.

Only two bids were received for paving and putting in curbs on Alp street from Hillside boulevard west. They were: Eaton and Smith, San Francisco, $1,602; R. J. Bragato, San Mateo, $1,950.

Bids for the installation of 10-inch-10-gauge welded steel pipe include:

Sorry, Wrong Girl At The Church

Only one member of the Smollen family will be married Saturday in Community Presbyterian church.

This will be Francis Smollen and Ruth Rieck at 1 o'clock. The other member, Marie Smollen, will be married one hour later in Our Lady of Perpetual Help church to John D. McFarlan.

Due to a misunderstanding, the "Record" printed last week that Marie and John would be married in the Presbyterian church.

Another error was that Marie was baptized by The Rev. John Glasse. Rev. Glasse baptized Ruth Rieck, and not Marie. Marie is a Catholic.

Despite this misunderstanding, the "Record" hopes the Smollen family will have a successful day of weddings.

TROMBORG'S TEPEE

Tonight, September 30, the Jefferson Indians will meet the Mountain View Eagles at Mountain View with kick-off time set at 8 p.m.

The Jefferson varsity looks strong in all positions except for the ends, but this position has strengthened since practice started two weeks ago. The encounter with the Mt. View eleven will be the first practice game for the Indians, and the boys will be all-out to win their first game in the 1949 season.

The Eagles are a big and aggressive team and will give the Indians a rough time, but if the Jefferson line opens the holes and the backfield runs through them, the Indians should come out victorious. The Jefferson line is strong from tackle to tackle and has a lot of depth which will give them a strong forward wall. The backfield is not big, but oh, look out for the speed!

The Indians should do most of their scoring off tackle and end sweeps. The starting line-up is not known as yet, but here is how the boys stand as of now. At left end, Lemon and Lauffenbuger are fighting it out for first team. Right end position will be between Green, Gonzales and Wilson, with Green on top at this time. Left tackle is a sure bet for Frank Druhan. Frank is big and agressive and will give the line power and strength.

Right tackle is a fight between Sweet, Harrison and McCool. Sweet played on last year's varsity; Harrison on the frosh-soph, but McCool is a transfer from L.A. and is giving Sweet and Harrison a rough time for this position. Martinez and Picollotti are fighting for left guard with Martinez on top at this time.

Right guard is held by Giannini and the center position is a neck-and-neck fight between Bricker and Maffei. Both boys look good and will see plenty of action. There is no doubt that Lunghi will start at the left half slot. Don is a good ball carrier and should do most of the Indians' scoring. At right half, Kliem is on top with Gallagher close behind. Ritter will start at fullback and Baggetta at quarterback.

The team looks good and has a lot of spirit which last year's team lacked. Coach South thinks he has a winning team if the boys play football. The Indians will play a practice tilt with Menlo next Friday, October 7, with kick off being set at 3 p.m.

10's WIN, 20's LOSE IN PRACTICE TILT

The Jefferson High 10's and 20's crossed the Golden Gate Bridge to play Tamalpais in a practice game September 20. The Jefferson 10's came out on top by the score of 27-21. The 20's were not victorious, losing 17 to 22.

The 20's game was close all the way; the score was 2-2 at the quarter; half time, 5-5; third quarter, 12-18, and the final score was 22-27.

Thirteen boys saw action. Forwards: Charles, Goodnal, Zappentini, Wilbans, Michellvine, and Firth. Center: Smith, Gonzales, Adams. Guards: Lyman, Blowers, Schmidt, Galindo and Banazza. Boys who scored points were as follows: Charles 4, Goodnal 2, Zappentini 2, Williams 2, Firth 6, and Lyman 1. The team looked good and after a little more practice they should do better.

The 10's won 27-21. The boys were really working the ball around the court. The game was theirs all the way. The score by quarters was:

First quarter	Jeff 12—Tam. 4
Half time	Jeff 20—Tam. 7
Third quarter	Jeff 20—Tam. 17
Final	Jeff 27—Tam. 21

The players who saw action were: Forwards — Hutchinson, Rose, Bollinger, Wilson, Trantham, Nonson; Center — Moquin, Gorman, Evans; Guards — Caliano, Record, Silva, Hartje, Butchen and Coffman. Hutchinson scored 2 points, Rose 4, Wilson 8, Moquin 8, Caliano 1, and Record 4. The 10's played a good game and will be a threat in the P.A.L. The 10's and 20's open the 1949 season October 6, with San Mateo at Jefferson.

FROSH-SOPH BALL

Coach Joe McGrath has a large turn-out for his frosh-soph football team in 1949. There are a few returning players from last year's eleven but most of the turn-outs are freshmen.

Boys out for the team are as follows: Allan, Allain, Benando, Cady, S. Davis, Espinoza, Gonella, Hazen, Holtzer, Humes, Irons, Larsen, Leach, Lewkowitz, Lorenzo, Martinez, McMahon, Mutter, Murchison, Nathan, Ours, Rivera, Scocca, Smith, Techirgi, Tunken, Trochi, Koprak, Makcoln, and Lieolive.

The frosh-soph team looks pretty good and if the boys play football, they will win their share of the games.

This line-up may change before the beginning game, so the boys are going to have to work hard to stay in their positions. Left half Norman Cady is fast and should do his share of the running in the backfield. Jack Allain, a six-foot-four end, will help make the line rough and tough. Stan Davis is a big and aggressive tackle. He should see some action and prove to be very good.

The team as a whole is aggressive and should do pretty well in the P.A.L. As you know, the frosh-soph is made up of freshmen and sophomores who in turn will make up the varisty in their junior and senior years. The boys play hard and really play football. If you want to see the future varsity in action, come out and see them play. The frosh play Balboa at Balboa September 30, and Serra High October 7 here.

Capps To Swim Golden Gate This Sunday

It may not be the English Channel, but the swim across the Golden Gate can be just as exciting.

At least this is the opinion of Hubert "Burt" Capps, 132 Gonzales, San Francisco, who will attempt the swim this Sunday. The former Daly City resident hopes to set a time record for the swim from Aquatic Park to the other side of the Golden Gate.

Capps will swim for the South End Rowing Club. This is an annual event for the club, but it is only the second time Capps has made the attempt. His first try proved unsuccessful.

The graduate of Jefferson High school is sure he's going to make it this time. But he's not depending wholly on luck. During the past year he's spent many an hour in training for the Sunday event.

Friends of Capps are invited to turn out at Fort Point at 8:15 a.m. Sunday when he makes the plunge into the bay. He will swim to Lime Rock.

Following the swim, an afternoon dance and luncheon will be held at the South End Rowing clubhouse. Anyone interested in swimming, and friends of Capps are invited to attend.

WEEKEND GAMES

Saturday: Daly City Mustangs vs. Woodland Legion, Hymann Field, Woodland, 8:15 p.m.

Sunday: Daly City Billiards vs. St. James, Marchbanks Park, 12:30 p.m.

Gall Furniture Co. vs. Lew's A. Service, South San Francisco, 12:30 p.m.

Junipero Serra Merchants vs. Gray's Tavern, Marchbanks Park, 2:30 p.m.

Jeff High Boy Struck By Car In Crosswalk

Narrowly escaping injury Tuesday was a Jefferson High school pupil struck by a car as he crossed Mission street in front of the school.

Jerry Hart, 17, 120 McDonald avenue, Bayshore, apparently was uninjured in the accident. School official John Mongan reported to police that Jerry was taken to the family doctor, who told his parents he was alright.

The car hit Jerry a glancing blow as he was crossing in the Mission crosswalk at 1:10 p.m. The driver stopped the car, asked Jerry if he was hurt. When Jerry said "No," the unidentified motorist got back in his car and drove away.

Police do not know the driver's name, but they are looking for him today to get a fuller story of the accident.

$11,500 Shell Station For DC

Another gas station is going up in Daly City, this time it will sell Shell products.

A building permit was issued to the Shell company this week to put up a $11,500 station at Junipero Serra and Parkview avenue.

Only other large permit of the week went to an M. Catalano, 114 Los Olivos. He was issued a $3,000 permit to alter a building at that address.

Three other permits went to: Fat Boy Barbecue, 7217 Mission, neon tubing, $60; William E. Talbot, 244 Westlake avenue, garage, $300, and R. F. Gobar, 101 Wellington avenue, alter office, $200.

Double Weekend Bill At Bayshore

Bayshore Stadium will be the scene of two racing programs this week end, with midget auto races on Friday and motorcycle racing on Saturday night.

Several special features are on tap for the Friday night midget program. In addition to the regular midget races, there will be two main events. One event will begin from an inverted start, and the other from a "straight-up" start.

And there also will be a special "hard top" main event. The past two "hard top" races have been very popular with the increasingly large Bayshore crowds.

Saturday night will mark the reappearance of the motorcycles after their Belmont season.

Bayshore motorcycle racing programs will be the only cycle cards presented on this side of the bay. "Shorty" Tompkins and Paul Albrecht, two top Sacramento riders, lead the field for the cycle races.

The midget program will see the return to action of Fred Agabashian, three-time northern California midget champion.

Mustangs Take Fourth; Will Play Woodland Saturday

By Allen Pettigrew

Sunday, on the Jeff High field, the colorful local football team added another victory to their record.

The Daly City Mustang line, led by rugged John Coccellato, outcharged the Modesto line repeatedly to wind up with the final tally of 19 to 7.

The Mustangs proved their superiority in the first quarter, when they held Modesto for no yards gained on three plays and the ball resting on their own 40 yard line. Modesto dropped back in punt formation, Schaffer attempted to kick, but the Mustang line broke through and hard charging Pat Simmons blocked the ball which was then scooped up by Mustang end Chuch Adams, who ran 35 yards for a touchdown.

The try for extra point was wide. The first quarter produced another Mustang score when Flash Ross took a handoff and raced 40 yards downfield where he was knocked out of bounds on the Modesto 16.

On the next play Marlowe handed off to Ross again, who raced around right end and into the end zone. Jim Sperow's kick was good. Mustangs 13, Modesto 0.

The second quarter found the Modesto defense tighten up so Marlowe called for a buttonhook to Adams. The pass, a short 15-yarder, was caught by Chuck Adams, who outran the defensive secondary and rambled 40 yards for a T.D.

The second half the Mustanks played a defensive game. Modesto finally tallied in the closing minutes of the game on a series of desperation passes which netted them a first down on the Mustang 8 yard line.

Modesto was held for no gain on 3 downs. On the 4th down Schaffer, Modesto fullback, hit right tackle and stumbled into the end zone. The try for point was good.

The gun sounded, ending the game a few seconds later.

This week end the Mustangs travel up to Woodland to face the highly-touted Woodland team. This will be the Mustangs' first night game.

The game will be at 8:15 p.m. on Hyman Field Saturday night. The Mustangs go into this one with 4 wins and 1 loss. The Woodland eleven have 3 wins and 1 loss.

Coyote Point Shark Derby This Sunday

More than 1,000 fishermen are expected to compete in the third annual Shark Derby at Coyote Point, San Mateo, this Sunday.

This is the only shark fishing competition in the United States, Ray Withers, general chairman said. Some $1,000 in merchandise prizes will be awarded to those bringing in the heaviest, most, and the smallest sharks.

Four main winners will be crowned Kingfisher, Queenfisher, Princefisher and Princessfisher. King Neptune will rise out of the waters of San Francisco Bay to act as master of ceremonies.

Staging a mass exhibition of many unusual and daring stunts will be 31 water skiiers. Other program highlights will be fly-casting exhibitions and free lessons, motorboat races, jet aviation demonstrations and displays of boats, fishing equipment, yachting equipment and automobiles.

Registration entry blanks have been placed in Peninsula sporting goods stores. Competitors may also register at Coyote Point on the day of the event.

Fishing will start at 8 a.m. October 2 and will end at 3 p.m. Entry fees are 50 cents for adults and 25 cents for youngsters.

Co-sponsored by the San Mateo Lions Club and the Coyote Point Yacht Club, the shark derby is held each year to encourage youngster participation in outdoor recreational activities.

J. S. Merchants Lose; Plan To Enter Winter League

Least said about last week's game between the Junipero Serra Merchants and the 12-Mile House A.C. the better.

Final score in the game was 9 to 1. The 12-Mile House held the upper hand.

Only explanation for the Merchants' poor showing is that they were shifting various players from position to position.

Backer Eddy White explains:

"We wanted to see what the different men could do in positions they had not played before. We found out."

All of the change was for good purpose, however, as the Merchants were "practicing" for their entry into the Double A Winter League.

The first game in the Winter League will be played October 9. A full schedule will be printed in the "Record" next week.

This Sunday the Merchants will battle it out with Gray's Tavern at 2 o'clock at Marchbanks Park.

COLMA SENIOR BOYS CLUB ENTER SEALS STADIUM LEAGUE... PLAY FIRST GAME THIS SUNDAY

Definitely swinging into big-time amateur baseball, the Colma Senior Boys Club has entered the Seals Stadium League.

Final arrangements for entry were completed this week by team backer Joseph Sarto.

First game of the season will be played this Sunday, October 2, at 2:30 p.m. in Seals Stadium. At that time the the Colma boys will tackle the highly-regarded South San Francisco nine, The 12-Mile House.

This will be the first of 10 games played in the Seals league. A complete schedule of the Sunday games will be run in the "Record" next week.

Having won 11 games, and dropped but three during the summer, the Colma team looks like it may be a real bidder for top place in the league. Many of the sand lot games played over the past few months will be repeated in the stadium. Sarto hopes the final score (except for those lost) will be the same.

"This is a real break for my boys," Sarto said. "It will give them an opportunity to play ball under professional rules and in a really big stadium."

In addition to a fee, the only other rules for teams entering the league are that they are good, and only two players are over 23 years of age.

Meanwhile, pitching a shutout game last Sunday, Colma Boys Senior Club ace pitcher Don Mossi wiped the smile off the Smiling Jack club by a score of 8 to 0.

This was the first time Mossi had taken to the mound for the Colma boys since he left to pitch for the Bakersfield Indians earlier in the year. He returned two weeks ago, but only played first base in the game the club dropped to Regal Pale 4 to 6.

In the Sunday game Mossi proved he had learned a great deal while with the Indians. He allowed only four hits, and none of these got past the infield. He also managed to strike out 14 of the highly regarded Smiling Jack players.

(It is this same Smiling Jack team that took the top awards in the Golden Gate league.)

Also giving the Colma boys a helping hand was Benny Parodi, who contacted with the ball for a triple, bringing in two runs.

The junior counterparts of the Colma boys, the Colma Junior Boys Club definitely played their last game of the season Sunday, taking the Daly City Boys Club by 5 to 2. This game was by way of an experiment to see how many Colma members would turn out.

Sarto said the turnout was disappointing as the majority of the nine now have school to occupy their spare time. Consequently, no more games until spring.

DC Theatre Starts Saturday Shows For Children

Cooperating with parents who wish to have a "free" Saturday afternoon, the Daly City Theatre will begin a special "Kiddie Show" this Saturday.

The movies, especially chosen for the children will be shown each Saturday afternoon. The doors of the theater open at noon, and the show gets underway at 12:15 p.m.

Theater Manager D. C. Anderson said the shows would be made up of westerns, cartoons, and the regular features.

All of the movies will be chosen with an eye on giving children harmless entertainment. This is in keeping with the policy of the Daly City Theatre, which hopes to bring your children good shows.

As much as possible Anderson will try to eliminate "objectionable" films from the regular features shown the children on Saturday afternoons. However, this may not always be possible.

Hence, Anderson asks parents to watch the regular features. Those who believe the films should not be seen by their children, will be asked to come and get their boys and girls after the special westerns and cartoons have been shown.

On the whole, however, Anderson promises a good fall season of fine, interesting children's films.

The first movie, this Saturday, October 1, will feature Roy Rogers in "Grand Canyon Trail."

Folkdancing Classes Begin In October For All Daly City Adults, Children; Everyone Invited To Take Lessons

With the polka, schottische and other types of folk dancing rapidly becoming more and more popular, adult folk dancing will be taught in Daly City this fall.

Classes, under the supervision of the Daly City Recreation Department, will be held twice a month.

First of what is expected to be 10 lessons will be given Thursday, October 6. Thereafter lessons will be given the first and third Thursday of each month.

Lessons will be given in Castle Hall, 7339 Mission street, from 8:15 p.m. until 10:30 p.m. Recreation Director Elman Rose said he was not sure yet whether or not any charge would be made for the lessons.

Mrs. Muriel Pabst, who has conducted the classes for the past several years, will be in charge of instruction.

Children, too, will have an opportunity to learn the folk-dancing steps. On October 6, and the first and third Thursdays of each month, a class will be held at General Pershing school from 3 to 4 p.m. for all sixth graders.

Those in the seventh grade and up will receive instructions in Bellevue Hall the second and third Thursdays of each month from 7 to 8:30 p.m.

Fifth graders may take lessons in General Pershing school from 3 to 4 p.m. on the second and fourth Thursdays.

While the location of the children's classes are aimed to serve those in northern Daly City, other classes are planned for those in the southern part of the community.

However, all children in the area are urged to attend the classes. This holds true for the adult sessions also, as the more the better, Rose asserted.

Everyone, whether he or she is an expert, or has never taken a step in folk dancing, is invited to attend the first class.

Appreciative Thief Leaves "Emily Post" Note For Car Owner

Courtesy is always the last word with one unidentified car thief.

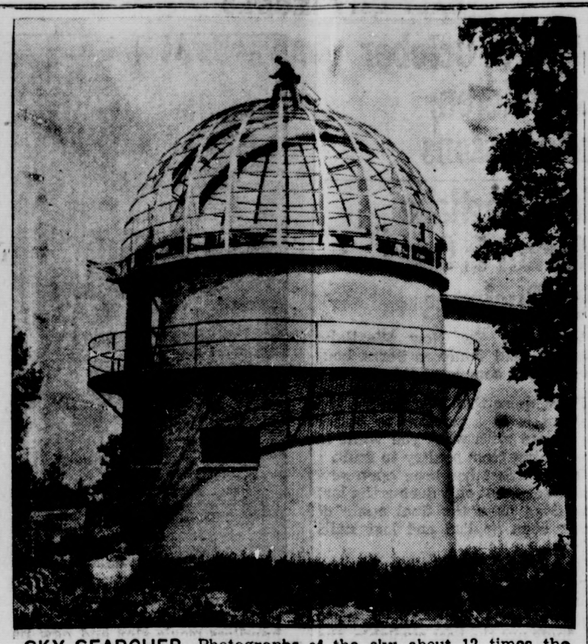
Daly City police recovered a car, stolen in San Francisco near Market and Mission street early Sunday evening.

There was neither sign of thief or owner, so the Daly City police turned the whole matter over to the San Francisco Auto Detail.

Fixed to the stearing wheel of the auto, officers found this note, evidently left by the thankful thief: "Thanks, please fix brakes..."

BEST HUNTING

Best deer hunting in the Nevada county area at present is to be had in the high country behind Bowman Lake.



SKY SEARCHER—Photographs of the sky about 12 times the moon's diameter will be taken at this new University of Michigan observatory nearing completion at Portage Lake, Mich. The observatory, equipped with a 24-inch reflecting telescope, will expand teaching facilities of the university and will be used in research.

Having Almost Been Killed Twice, Bob Witt Still Likes Boats

His sea legs are wobbly today from a boat that sank under him last Thursday, but still Bobby Witt, 451 Crocker, loves the sea.

There is no explaining this "unreasonable" attitude, especially after what transpired between the hours of 10 a.m. and noon September 22.

In his 26-foot surplus government boat, Witt was headed for Sausalito for more gas. He was in Racoon straits, between Angel Island and the Golden Gate community.

It was to be a good day of fishing, and Witt was looking forward to leisurely recovering from a recent six-month stay in the hospital at Fort Wiley. He had a good boat (a former all-metal life saving boat, reconditioned for fishing), $400 worth of tackle, and fine weather.

Just a few miles northwest of Alcatraz island, Witt felt cold water lapping at his feet. Something had gone wrong. He turned on the pumps, but the water persisted in coming up over the floor boards.

Desperately he began to bail out water. But it did no good. The water continued to rise, and Witt was unable to find the leak.

(To this day Witt does not know what caused the leak. He did not hit any rocks or logs. The only explanation he can give is that that the sea valve went out.)

His boat was just far enough out to prevent him from beaching it, but nevertheless the former tavern owner turned her toward shore.

At that moment he saw another craft and signaled he was in trouble. The boat drew along side and one of the crew jumped aboard to aid Witt.

(In the excitement, Witt neither got the name of the man, or his boat.)

A line was made fast to the other boat and Witt's sinking craft. Both men began to bail. Still the water poured up over the floorboards.

The other man soon gave up, and a second after he cut the rope between the two fishing boats, Witt's craft went under.

While the other ship went to pick up its man, Witt was caught in a swift tide and swept into a mass of logs and boards floating near shore.

Fast thinking, and former training (Witt had been to sea in his youth, and had spent many years in Hawaiian surfs), probably saved the Daly City man's life.

Quickly he pealed off all his clothes, and struck out against the tide. As he swam logs and boards struck at his head, arms, legs, ankles unmercifully.

Witt doesn't remember much after that. He was in the water 45 minutes before the other ship finally threw him a line.

Rushed to the Fort Miley hospital, Witt was treated for shock. The next day he was home where he is recovering today both from shock and bruises and cuts inflicted by the logs.

"I lost a $1,500 boat, all my fishing tackle, and almost my life, but I think I'll try it again, soon," Witt concluded.

Remarkable? Yes, but also consider that seven years ago Witt lost a $3,000 boat when starting it up at the dock. He was blown through the cabin roof when wet wiring and gas joined in a destructive explosion. That time he also almost lost his life.

MANY DEER HUNTERS OUT

Many deer hunters were out in the Webber Lake and Loyalton areas of Sierra county last week, reports the National Automobile Club. They were bagging the normal amount of deer, with most of those bagged very small forked-horns.

CLIFF DWELLINGS

Indians in New Mexico are reported to have occupied cliff dwellings until about three hundred and fifty years ago, or sixty years after the arrival of the first Spanish explorers in that area.

General Mariano Vallejo laid out Sonoma around an eight-acre plaza with Mission San Francisco de Solano at the northeast corner.

Pension Info. At San Mateo

More workers than ever before are now calling at the San Mateo Federal Social Security office to inquire about Old-Age and Survivors Insurance, Ed Foley, manager, said today.

"These people are interested in verifying that full credit has been given them for all the work they have done since Old-Age and Survivors Insurance started," Foley said.

A post card for obtaining a record of the total wages reported is available at the San Mateo field office, 42 North B street, San Mateo.

Workers who are nearing the retirement age of 65 should contact the local office of the Social Security Administration. Retirement and death benefits under the program are based on the worker's earnings on jobs covered by the Social Security Act.

The local office furnishes information on the insurance and takes claims for benefits.

Don't Phone Your Area Rent Office

Landlords and tenants hoping to cut through rent office "red tape" with a telephone call are wasting their time.

Area Rent Director William A. Bledsoe said his staff is doing everything in its power to expedite action on pending cases.

"We have a large number of landlord petitions, tenants' complaints, and eviction certificate requests on hand and we're working overtime to try to get them out," Bledsoe said.

"Analysis of our counter and telephone work load reveals that almost half of the callers and phoners simply want to inquire about the progress of a rent matter on which we are working. The time and effort necessary to track down the information measurably slows up progress on the cases."

An increased workload and personnel cuts have slowed down office work, Bledsoe explained. He said he hoped to have the situation back to normal in a month or so.

SALMON FISHING FAIR

Salmon anglers on party boats operating off the coast of San Francisco have enjoyed some fair sport during the past few days. They are taking fair numbers of sizable fish.

DC Firm Agent For "Permalune," Paint Product

Exclusive agent for the new roofing and paint product, "Permalune," in the bay area is the American Roof Maintenance Co., Daly City.

Described as "liquid metallic armor," Permalune is difficult to pin down either as paint or as metal. Its main use is in surfacing roofs, but it also can be used on metal, masonry, wood, fiberboard insulations, canvas, and smooth asphalt.

William Degliantoni, ARMC head, explained "Permalune" as a new product produced by the Grems Manufacturing Company, Klamath Falls, Oregon.

Prepared in liquid form, the product is applied with a spray gun. When the job is completed, the home owner will have low cost protective metallic surface which will reflect radiant light and heat up to 75 per cent and is waterproof.

Further information on "Permalune" may be obtained by calling on Degliantoni at the American Roof Maintenance Co., Daly City.

UC Hog Raising Circular Now Available

Hog raisers in California have six advantages and three drawbacks, says a newly revised circular written by Drs. E. H. Hughes and Hubert Heitman, animal husbandmen on the Davis campus of the University of California.

The advantages are higher than average prices, a guaranteed market, excellent climate, small capital investment, increased net returns, and many excellent pork-producing feeds grown on California's farms.

The drawbacks are higher than average cost of feeds, high cost of land and labor, and the animals' need for artificial shade during the hot summer months.

The circular, "Pork Production in California," also lists 60 rations for all classes of swine, tells of six ways to fatten pigs, gives the nutrients contained in some 50 feeds, and helps hog raisers to figure out for themselves whether their ration is providing enough nutrients for the animals.

Anyone who wishes to receive the free circular number 15, can get it from his farm advisor or through the College of Agriculture in Berkeley.

In addition, not more than two such parcels may be received per month by any family in Israel. The acting postmaster gave no reason for this action.

Yellow Margarine On Sale Saturday

Pre-colored oleomargarine will be on the shelves of your grocer Saturday, October 1.

This is the day the state's new oleo law goes into effect.

But the new yellow-colored margarine is going to cost more. It will go up an extra 10 cents a pound. The 10 cents is to pay the federal tax on pre-colored margarine.

O. A. Ghiggoile, enforcement officer for the new law, said the colored margarine would be on most grocery shelves the minute the stores open October 1.

TAKE A LOOK

When backing your car, don't rely entirely on your rear view mirror, because the mirror does not always reflect an obstruction in the rear. Always look back through your rear window before putting the car in motion.

Proposition 2 On Nov. 8 Ballot Opposed By Labor

Organized Labor in California went unanimously on record today against repeal of the present old-age pension law, as proposed in Proposition No. 2.

John W. Brown, campaign director for the labor committee against Proposition No. 2, made this report today. Groups ooposed to the Proposition on the November 8 ballot include: California State Federation of Labor, the California National CIO-PAC, and lodges of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen and the International Association of Machinists, Brown said.

Labor generally has opposed Proposition No. 2 on the grounds that its passage would return certain pension practices detrimental to workers.

"After all, it is the working man who eventually winds up on the pension rolls," Brown asserted. "Big business interests behind Proposition 2 are guided by men enjoying financial positions which offer them the highest degree of personal security."

LOOK AHEAD

For safe driving, keep your eyes and ears alerted to traffic conditions, urges the California State Automobile Association. In traffic, don't let your eyes wander off the road for any length of time, because your hands tend to steer the car in the direction you are looking. In an instant's time you can be off the road, or dangerously close to an approaching car.

PAUL'S FIRST KISS—Miss Wyoming, Esther MacLeod of Sheridan, Wyo., plants a kiss on "Paul Bunyan," giant mechanical man at the Railroad Fair in Chicago. Norma Jean Bell, who bears the title of "Miss Frontier Days," cheers Esther on. It was Paul's first contact with the feminine world since his great height scared the others off.

SQUEAKING BRAKES

An automobile brake that squeaks when applied may indicate that the brake lining is worn so badly that rivets are cutting into the brake drums, warns the California State Automobile Association. If this condition is not corrected immediately, brake drums may be ruined beyond repair.

Teas For Fleet Reserve Auxiliary

Recently members of the Ladies Auxiliary Fleet Reserve Association Unit No. 48 have been extensively entertained by fellow members.

Hostesses over the past few weeks for teas, luncheons, and other entertainment were: Mrs. Ralph Withing, Mrs. William Shea, Mrs. Harry M. O'strander and Mrs. Jack Hold of Daly City, and Mrs. Ruth Bishop and Mrs. Lydia Pearce.

The next luncheon, no date given, will be held by Mrs. Gladys Wallace at her home in Sharp Park.

Another Daly City woman, Mrs. Gertrude Hatting, 167 San Diego avenue, has taken full charge of refreshments.

DEER HUNTING FAIR

Deer hunting was fair during the past few days in the Georgetown, Pilot Hill, and Kelsey areas of El Dorado county, reports the National Automobile Club. Hunting in the rest of the county has been very poor.

"Inquiring Parents" Begins PTA Show

Humor in the Home will be the topic of discussion in the first transcribed interview of "The Inquiring Parent" series, at 11:15 a.m. on Tuesday, October 4.

These 15-minute presentations are sponsored by 17th District, California Congress of Parents and Teachers, over KSMO, 1550 kc. They are designed to bring guidance to parents on a wide variety of problems relating to the younger generation.

The series was prepared by Dr. Luther Woodard, noted child psychologist and field consultant for the National Committee on Mental Hygiene. Broadcasts will continue on Tuesday mornings for the complete series of 14 interviews.

Study outline and list of reference material, to aid in evaluating the parent education course, can be obtained by sending fifteen cents to 17th District, PET. in care of KSMO.

California fish landings now comprise 40 per cent of the commercial catch in continental United States.

"National Employ The Physically Handicapped Week," October 2 to 8

A campaign to help handicapped workers find jobs will be carried on from October 2nd through the 8th as Daly City joins the nation in observing "National Employ the Physically Handicapped" Week.

Proclamations calling for the observance of this week have been issued by President Truman and Governor Warren.

Local employers will be asked to make a survey of their present job requirements in order to find possible openings for handicapped persons. Physically disabled persons not now working will be urged to register at the local office of the California Department of Employment where their qualifications for work can be evaluated.

There should be a job for every handicapped worker if employers will consider the abilities and not the disabilities of the handicapped. It has been proven that when properly placed, disabled workers as a rule are enthusiastic, hard-working, and satisfactory workers. Their attendance record is low and production record is high.

This is not a charity drive. When an employer calls the Department of Employment for a handicapped worker, he can be sure that any applicant sent to him will be just as well qualified for the job as an unimpaired worker.

Such firms as Bethlehem Steel Corporation, Pan-American Airways, Fuller Paint, and Eitel McCullough, and many others in the area list many handicapped workers among their employees, and state that these workers are doing outstanding jobs.

Persons interested in hiring handicapped workers, or who desire additional information should contact N. H. Pedersen, local office manager of the California Department of Employment, 215 Linden avenue, South San Francisco.

Thief Gets $20 Worth Of Tools From DC Man In Basement Burglary

Either working with wrenches today or pocketing $20 is an unidentified thief who lifted the tools from John Rainey, 64 Los Olivos avenue, sometime last week.

Rainey reported to police that he had left the box of crescent wrenches valued at $20 in his basement. Sometime between September 16 and September 20, the thief took the tools from the basement of 346 Willits street.

The police report indicated that the burglar had gained entrance through an open door.

HAVE ACCELERATOR FREED

When the accelerator sticks, have it freed at once. Underlubrication at its various points of anchorage or deficient spring tension will sometimes make it stick slightly. While it can be pulled up with the side of the shoe, no matter how skillful one is in freeing it there are times when failure is inevitable and punishment is inflicted upon the transmission gears.

DALY CITY—COLMA

Some 60 men and their wives attended the luncheon and went through several large platters of fried chicken.

After the food, two pupils of Jefferson High school gave a music recital. Miss Cristina Quickert sang several songs, accompanied on the piano by Miss Pat Austring.

Later, Miss Austring played several selections on the piano for the ladies.

Guest sepaker of the day, fittingly enough, was a lady — Miss Ruth Melendy, superintendent of schools at San Carlos.

She spoke on the trials and tribulations of a teacher and superintendent. Through amusing stories she brought out the fact that most teachers spend a good part of their time doing everything but teaching.

It seems many parents believe a teacher should also take care of the physical health of their children. For example, the woman who called the school and asked a teacher to put a bandage on her child's knee. She said she didn't have any bandages at home.

IRRESPONSIBLE DRIVER

The motorist who settles down behind the wheel of his car with the feeling that "somehow or other he'll get by" is headed for trouble, warns the National Automobile Club. In a traffic situation where someone is injured almost every thirty seconds, someone is permanently impaired every five minutes, and someone is killed about every fifteen minutes, there is really no place for the irresponsible driver.

SF Players Club To Open Season With "Vignettes"

Presenting sketches from life, The Players Club will present "Vignettes" as its first play of the season in San Francisco beginning October 2.

This is actually eight original one-act plays by Adolph Lehmann. None of the plays, or play as you will, ever has been presented on a stage.

For those unfamiliar with the playhouse, it might be well to point out that The Players Club has the destinction of having founded the first little theater in California.

Under the direction of Reginald Travers, a repertoire of many fine plays have been produced over the years, many of them for the first time in San Francisco. Many original plays by local authors were produced from time to time.

The Club feels it has a definite purpose in the community to present the best i nthe theater and to preserve the finest traditions of the stage.

Tickets for "Vignettes," at $1.50 plus tax, are now on sale at the Club's studio playhouse, 823 Powell street. More information may be obtained by calling YUkon 2-3391.

Opening dates for the play are Sunday, October 2, Friday, October 7, and the week end of October 8 and 9.
